This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

LETTER

FROM THE

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY,

TRANSMITTING

A statement of the receipts and expenditures of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1857.

DECEMBER 18, 1857.—Laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
December 18, 1857.

SIR: I have the honor to forward herewith statements prepared by the Register of the Treasury, with a copy of his letter transmitting them to this department, exhibiting an account of the receipts and expenditures of the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1857; stated in pursuance of the standing order of the House of Representatives of 30th December, 1791, and an act of August 26, 1842.

I am, very respectfully,

HOWELL COBB,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Hon. JAS. L. ORR,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Register's Office, December 17, 1857.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit the account of the receipts and expenditures of the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1857, stated in pursuance of the standing order of the House of Representatives of 30th of December, 1791, and an act of August 26, 1842.

This account contains—

First. A general account of the receipts and expenditures of the fiscal ending June 30, 1857. The pages in the margin of the credit side refer to the detailed expenditures under the specific heads of appropriation.

Second. The expenditures and repayments under each head of appropriation, showing the aggregate amount paid to, and repaid by, each individual during the year.

Third. Statements of the appropriations made for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1857, including the balances on the 1st of July, 1856, the payments during the year, the several sums carried to the surplus fund, and the balances unexpended at the end of the year.

Fourth. Statements of the balances due by, and in favor of the supervisors, collectors and others, of the late direct taxes and internal revenue.

Fifth. Statements of the operations of the several land offices in the fiscal year ending 30th June, 1857.

Sixth. Statements in relation to the customs.

Seventh. Statements of the emoluments of the officers of the customs as far as received at this office. The balance will be included in the next year.

The account of the receipts and expenditures would have been completed and transmitted at the time prescribed by law but for the sickness of the principal clerk in charge of this business.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

F. BIGGER, Register.

Hon. HOWELL COBB,
Secretary of the Treasury.

AN ACCOUNT

OF

THE RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES

OF

THE UNITED STATES

FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1857.

Stated in pursuance of the following standing order of the House of Representatives of the United States, passed December 30, 1791, viz:

"Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to lay before the House of Representatives, on the fourth Monday of October in each year, if Congress shall then be in session, or, if not then in session, within the first week of the session next following the said fourth Monday in October, an accurate statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public moneys down to the last day, inclusively, of the month of December immediately preceding the said fourth Monday in October, distinguishing the amount of receipts from each State or district, and from each officer therein; in which statement shall also be distinguished the expenditures which shall fall under each head of appropriation; and shall be shown the sums, if any, which remain unexpended and to be accounted for in the next statement of each and every of such appropriations;"

And of "An act to define and establish the fiscal year of the treasury of the United States," passed August 26, 1842.
